

The Hon David Bradbury MP

FEDERAL MEMBER FOR LINDSAY

Parliamentary Secretary to the Treasurer

30 November 2011

The Winner of the 2011 Lindsay Christmas Card Competition is...

Cambridge Gardens Public School student Ennabel Cheong is the winner of the 2011 Lindsay Christmas Card design competition.

Ennabel's winning design was chosen out of hundreds of entries received from local primary school students. This artwork now features on the front of Mr Bradbury's Christmas cards for 2011.

Ennabel was awarded a $50 book voucher, as well as winning a $150 book voucher for her school.

"Every year I invite all year 4 primary school students in my Electorate to submit a design for the cover of my 2011 Christmas cards," Mr Bradbury said.

"It was extremely difficult to pick a winner from the hundreds of outstanding entries I received this year.

"Ennabel's bright and colourful design was chosen for its Christmas cheer and festive spirit. I would like to congratulate her on winning this year's competition.

"I would also like to extend a big thank you to all the talented students who participated in this year's competition and their schools for making this possible.

"I wish them all a safe and happy Christmas with their loved ones."

Mr Bradbury presenting Ennabel with her prize at Cambridge Gardens Public School last week.